Covid-19:
Update of important information
Opdatering van belangrike inligting

Covid Communique 16 (17 April 2020)

Dear Industry Role-player,

CIPC REGISTRATION CERTIFICATES AND PERMIT

Government again reiterated that the CIPC registration certificate is not a permit. The self-issue permits issued by employers is the only document with legal force that can permit employees performing essential services to be exempted from certain restrictions. So whilst the CIPC may be issuing new registration certificates, the legal document remains the essential service permit and this does not expire. Hence there is no need for employers to issue new permits to essential employees.

In a media release the dtic stated that companies, who are registered through the Companies and Intellectual Property Commission's (CIPC) BizPortal to perform essential services during the lockdown period, will be required to have a new certificate from the BizPortal website for the extended period, which started, today 17 April 2020. The certificate will be sent via email using the details provided at the time of registration, and was also available for download.

Companies will receive the certificates. The full list of registered companies will have receive their certificates by the weekend. Hortgro for instance already received is replacement certificate.

The new certificate clearly state that it is for the extended lockdown period, starting 17 April 2020. South African Police Service officials will be informed which certificates to look for. Please click here for doc: https://www.hortgro.co.za/wp-content/uploads/docs/2020/03/200416_trade-and-

Beste Bedryfsverteenwoordiger,

CIPC REGISTRASIE SERTIFIKATE EN PERMITTE

Die regering het bevestig dat die CIPC-registrasiesertifikaat nie 'n permit is nie. Die permitte wat deur werkgewers uitgereik word, is die enigste dokument met wettige mag wat werknemers wat noodsaaklike dienste verrig, van sekere beperkings vrystel. Terwyl die CIPC moontlik nuwe registrasiesertifikate uitreik, bly die wetlike dokument die noodsaaklike dienspermit en dit verval nie. Dit is dus nie nodig dat werkgewers nuwe permitte aan noodsaaklike werknemers uitreik nie.

Die Dtic het in 'n mediaverklaring gesê dat ondernemings wat geregistreer is deur die BizPortal van die Maatskappye en Intellektuele Eiendomskommissie (CIPC) om noodsaaklike dienste gedurende die afsluitingsperiode te verrig, het 'n nuwe sertifikaat van die BizPortal-webwerf vir die verlengde inperking, wat op 17 April 2020 begin, nodig.

Die sertifikaat sal per e-pos gestuur word met behulp van die gegewens wat tydens registrasie verstrek is, en dit kan ook afgelaai word. Maatskappye sal die sertifikate ontvang en die volledige lys geregistreerde ondernemings sal teen die naweek hul sertifikate ontvang. In die nuwe sertifikaat sal dit duidelik wees dat dit die verlengde periode, wat op 17 April 2020 begin, is. Lede van die Suid-Afrikaanse Polisiediens sal ingelig word oor watter sertifikaat verlang word. Kliek hier vir meer inligting:
